FROM YALU RIVER

ST. PETERSBURG, May 2, 4:36 p. m. -At 2:30 this afternoon the Associated Press was informed that beyond the fact of the retreat of the Russians before the overwhelming superiority of the Japanese, on the Yalu river, no de-tails have been received since the re-port of Gen. Sassulitch, commander of the Second Siberian army corps, yes-terday, of the retirement from Kullen

Cheng to Antung.

It is quite possible that the loss on both sides in the week's fighting may reach the figures given by the Japanese. as the reserves were not brought up to support the Russian position at Kullen theng, where the fighting was heaviest

The Russians made a special effort hold as long as possible the heights of Cho San, or an island opposite Kullen Cheng, whence their guns commanded a considerable stretch of the river to the south, but a Japanese battery on a hill shove Wiju dominated the position, which the Russians eventually were forced to relinquish, thus losing the key to the river.

The desperate character of the strug-gle, there may have been due to the gle there may have been due to the necessity for gaining time for the with-drawal of the Russian detachments shove and below.

Gen. Sassulitch was in command of the entire force on the Yalu, which extended over a distance of thirty miles, with reserve support fifteen miles back. The whole force, according to the best in-formation obtainable, did not exceed 17,000 men. What was the actual force engaged is not known at present, though probably it was not more than 5000 men, if it was so large. No confirmation has yet been received of the reported capture of twenty-eight Russian quick-firing guns or of the wounding of Gen. Sassuitteh and Gen. Kashtalinsky.

CONTRIVANCES USED TO ANNOY ALEXIEFF

PORT ARTHUR, May 2—Details of the demonstration off Port Arthur April 57 disclose the ingenuity of the Japaneze. Their squadron set afloat a string of connected rafts carrying burning matter. About 1:40 o'clock in the morning, when five miles off shore the combustibles were fired, the wind and waves bringing the burning floats toward the barbor. Under cover of this screen of fire eight Japanese torpedo boats, towing a launch filled with mines, slipped around to a spot near where the Petropavlovsk was sunk, but they were detected by Russian searchights, when the batteries opened fire and drove them off, but not before the mines had been sown. The mines have since been destroyed. The Japanese, knowing that the Russians would intercopt wireless messages, tried a neat trick to deceive and worry Viceroy Alexief. For several nights in succession they sent by wireless telegraphy orders to prepare for a landing, to send in fire ships, to attack with submarine boats, etc.

VERY CLOSE CALL FOR ADMIRAL JEZZEN

ST. PETERSBURG, May 2—Information received here shows that Rear-Admiral Jezzen, commanding the Viadivostok squadron, had a narrow escape while on his raiding expedition. Through the wireless messages of the enemy which he intercepted the Admiral found that he was surrounded by Japanese warships, but owing to a dense fog he was able to slip into Vindivostok unobserved.

CHINESE WOULDN'T WAIT ON NEGRO CUSTOMERS | +

CHICAGO, May 2—Pu Lee, manager of the Chinese restaurant known as the Hong Fong Ho, on the South Side, was arraigned in Justice Everett's court yesterday on complaint of four negroes, who swore that they were not served by Chinese waiters at the chop sucy house, and were ordered out of the place. The Justice fixed the manager $100 and costs.

Sharp Fighting Occurs at Hamatan, Where Russians Were Attacked From Three Sides,

The Twelfth Japanese division advanced toward Tah Lang Fang, which is due west of the village of Makao; the division of the Imperial guards advanced toward Hamatan, which is west of Chiu Tien Cheng, while the Second division moved down the river, with Antung as its objective. The general reserve advanced over the main road to Liao Yang, which runs in a westerly direction from the Yalu river.

At 6 o'clock yesterday evening the Japanese army held a line extending from Antung northwesterly to Laukuku and running from there in a northeast-erly direction to Lishukau.

At Hamatan, where the Iho river makes its first bend to the west, the Japanese succeeded in enveloping the Russians on three sides. At this place, after sharp fighting at close range, the after sharp fighting at close range, the Japanese captured twenty Russian guns with their horses, carriages and ammunition, and more than twenty officers and many men. JAPS CONTROL

YALU ESTUARY

TIEN TSIN, May 2.-Two hundred Rus stans are entrenching themselves on the Liao river, three miles from Sin Min Tung, employing Chinese laborers. Sin Min Tung is two miles from Koupang Tse, a permanent Russian camp. A detachment of 150 men is patrolling the rail-

The exact extent and location of the movements along the lower Yalu river are somewhat obscured by the confusion of geographical names. Kullen Cheng, which was the main objective of the Japanese attack, the spelling of which is given in the Russian dispatches as Turen Chen and in the Tokio sports as Chiu Tien Cheng, is west of the bank of the Yalu, a few miles north of Antung. The preliminary operations which resulted in the Japanese occupation of Kosan or Khussan, also took place on the west bank of the Yalu, thus enabling this force to move down from the north in conjunction with the main Japanese attack delivered on Sunday morning against Kullen Cheng. The fall of this strategically important place made the holding of Antung, nearly opposite Wiju, across the Yalu, impossible, and caused the Russians to burn and abandon the town.

It is evident that the fighting has been confined to the Yalu estuary, which is now in the hands of the Japanese.

Feng Wang Cheng, to which the Russians have fallen back, is some thirty or forty miles north of Antung, inside or west of the famous Willow palisade, which was once the boundary of Manchuria.

This point also controls the famous Pechuria.

This point also controls the famous Peking road, the great caravan and trade route running via Liao Yang, Feng Wang Cheng and Antung and connecting the Chinese capital with Kores.

LIKENED TO WATERLOO

LONDON, May 2.-The important acounts of the fighting on the Yalu river Japanese carried the line of hills have reached London, and various opinions are expressed regarding the importance of the Japanese victory. It is considered in some quarters that it was never the intention of the Russians to hold the right bank of the Yalu except for tactical purposes, and that the real struggle has not yet been reached.

not yet been reached.

The Daily Telegraph takes the rather extreme view of comparing the capture of Kiulien Cheng to that of Waterloo and Plevna, and says that the present misfortune is even more serious because the Russians have been driven from a fortined position in spite of every advantage conferred on its defense by modern weapons "The fight," the editorial says, "must modify and forever the destinies of Europe and Asia."

The Times military correspondent, presuming that her important Japanese operations will coincide with the Kiulien Cheng affair, points out that the world is completely in the dark regarding the second and third Japanese armies. The second army left Japan in the latter part of March under Gen. Oku, the correspondent says, and so far no one has been able to locate it. "It has vanished into space," while the correspondent points out the third army embarked quite recently.

MIST OVER THE SEA PREVENTED NAVAL BATTLE

TOKIO, May 2, noon.-Vice-Admiral Kamimura, who is in command of the Japanese squadron which has been operating recently against Vladivostok, has sent in a report from Gensan, Korea, dated Sunday, in which he says that the impenetrable fog twice forced the abandonment of the attack on Vladi-vostok, and twice spared the Russian squadron a sea fight.

While Kamimura was steaming north the first time he sighted the Russian squadron bound south on the raid to Gensan, which resulted in the sinking of the Japanese merchant steamer Goyo Maru and the transport Kinshiu Maru The Japanese and the Russian squadrons must have passed very close to each other, for the Japanese were con-scious of the presence of the enemy.

When Kamimura was compelled to suspend his attack upon Viadivostok he moved to the southward and again passed the Russians on their way north after the Gensan raid

ANTUNG IS BURNED BY RUSSIAN TROOPS

LONDON, May 2.- The Japanese legation gave out today an official dispatch from the Admirality at Tokio, reporting an engagement between Japanese war-"Gen. Kuriko, commanding the + ships on the Yalu and Russian shore batteries. It reads as follows:

BROWN MEN HAVE FIRM HOLD ON MANCHURIA

LONDON, May 2 .- A dispatch to the Central News from Seoul says that after the Japanese charge which resulted in the occupation of the Russian lines at Chiu Cheng, the Russians fell back in confusion. The Japanese, the dis-patch continued, have now secured a firm hold on the Manchurian side of the Yalu. Dispatches from St. Petersburg say that the official Finland Gazette reports the prevalence of wild rumors, such as appearance of a British squadron off Helsingford and Japanese sples at Uleaberg.

HAPPY RESULTS OBTAINED.

By the Use of the New Scalp Antisep-

It wouldn't take long to number the hairs in the heads of some people, the reason being they haven't many to number. In most instances, however, the fault is their own. A germ at the root soon plays havec with the most luxuriant growth and causes it to fade and fall out. A remedy for this has recently been discovered, called Newbro's Herpicide, that acts by destroying the germ that does the damage, besides removing all impurities from the scalp. In addition it permits new life and vigor to enter the scalp, and happy results are sure to be obtained from its use. Try it. Sold by leading druggists. EMINENT DOCTORS PRAISE MUCU-TONE

OW can we measure the importance to mankind of the discovery of an absolute cure for catarrh, that dreaded malady which attacks the mucous membrane or delicate underlining of the skin of the body.

The disease which for years has discouraged scientists - the disease which numbers 12,000,000 men and women sufferers in the United States alone. The heads of great hospitals, where scores of catarrhal patients are treated each year, are perhaps in the best position to appreciate the value of a remedy, which working along scientific, intelligent lines, brings permanent cure to even the chronic sufferer. The staff of physicians of the Suffolk Hospital and Dispensary in Boston, where in less than two years 83,271 patients have registered, do not hesitate to pronounce Rexall Mucu-Tone the best cure for catarrh they Albert C. Smith is the president and treasurer and the Hon. Chas. J. Noyes and the Hon. James Stevens are vice-presidents. The secretary is F. H. Wallace, M. D., and the superintendent is W. C. Clarke, M. D.

President Smith's letter should be read by every catarrh sufferer. We print it in full:

"It gives me great satisfaction to report to you that after a most careful trial of Rexall Mucu-Tone, the corps of physicians of our institution agree that this compound is the best cure for catarrh which we have ever used. "In all catarrhal diseases of the bronchial and nasal passages; catarrh of the stomach, intestines, kidneys and bladder; catarrhal troubles of the generative organs of women, etc., Mucu-Tone has effected remarkable permanent

"Mucu-Tone seems to act immediately upon the blood and mucous membranes, strengthens their cells and healing the inflammation.

"We shall continue to use this valuable preparation, for nothing can compare with it in the treatment of catarrh and its kindred troubles.

"Yours very truly,
A. C. SMITH, President."

Certainly such testimony as this must convince even the most skeptical-certainly it will justify us in requesting catarrh sufferers to give Rexall Mucu-Tone a trial; to give it a chance to speak for itself. If you will do this we know you will continue taking it until cured.

Rexall Mucu-Tone is unlike all other catarrh remedies. It works through the bloodvessels, going direct to the affected part whether in head, throat, stomach, kidneys or bladder; driving out the poisons and healing all inflammations of the mucous membranes. From the very first dose its strengthening influence will be felt and from four to six bottles will effect a complete cure of the worst cases. Your money back if not more than satisfied.
